SINCE 1957 THE ARC OF ANCHORAGE has been creating opportunities for Alaskans with intellectual and developmental disabilities. What began as a group of Anchorage parents & concerned volunteers has grown into a statewide organization serving more than 500 people a year. The Arc of Anchorage is proud to be committed to protecting human rights, and helping people achieve full and satisfying lives. Your donation of clothing and household items turns into health services, housing, life skills training, job training, and recreation for Alaskans who experience developmental and intellectual disabilities.

If you have more items you would like to donate, please call 929.HELP, text 744.0086, or visit TheArcofAnchorage.org to schedule your pickup online.
